Dear OUBELLA LHOSSINE,

You have been randomly selected for further processing in the Diversity Immigrant Visa Program for the fiscal year 2018 (October 1, 2017 to September 30, 2018). Selection does not guarantee that you will receive a visa because the number of applicants selected is greater than the number of visas available. Therefore, it is very important that you carefully follow instructions to increase your chances of possible visa issuance. The instructions are located on the Department of State website at <http://www.dvselectee.state.gov> (<http://www.dvselectee.state.gov>). All DV applicants must use the online DS-260 Immigrant Visa and Alien Registration Application. Paper forms will not be accepted.

Please print out this letter and take it with you to your visa interview. Your case will not be scheduled for an interview appointment until a visa number is available. If you are scheduled for an interview, you will receive a notification message at the e-mail address you provided when you submitted your initial application.

If you need to contact the Kentucky Consular Center (KCC) about your case, you may write to KCCDV@state.gov (<mailto:KCCDV@state.gov>). When writing to KCC, you must always include your name and case number as they appear below. You must also include your complete date of birth as stated on your original entry. You may call the Kentucky Consular Center at (+1) 606-526-7500 between 7:30am and 4:00pm EST.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT: Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes per response, including time required for searching existing data sources, gathering the necessary documentation, providing the information and/or documents required, and reviewing the final collection. You do not have to supply this information unless this collection displays a currently valid OMB control number. CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT: AUTHORITIES: The information asked for on this form is requested pursuant to Section 222 of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Section 222(f) provides that the records of the Department of State and of diplomatic and consular offices of the United States pertaining to the issuance and refusal of visas or permits to enter the United States shall be considered confidential and shall be used only for the formulation, amendment, administration, or enforcement of the immigration, nationality, and other laws of the United States. Certified copies of such records may be made available to a court provided the court certifies that the information contained in such records is needed in a case pending before the court. PURPOSE: The U.S. Department of State uses the facts you provide on this form primarily to determine your classification and eligibility for a U.S. immigrant visa. Individuals who fail to submit this form or who do not provide all the requested information may be denied a U.S. immigrant visa. Although furnishing this information is voluntary, failure to provide this information may delay or prevent the processing of your case. ROUTINE USES: If you are issued an immigrant visa and are subsequently admitted to the United States as an immigrant, the Department of Homeland Security will use the information on this form to issue you a Permanent Resident Card, and, if you so indicate, the Social Security Administration will use the information to issue a social security number.
